

---

Web Development Project Manager Resume

---

Job Objective

To obtain a position as Web Development Project Manager with your company so that I can act on the skills and experience I have obtained in past positions.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Admirable experience in managing multiple projects, developing various web projects and managing various commercial websites
  - Profound knowledge of PHP Programming
  - Operational knowledge of SQL Server and related database
  - Remarkable ability to interact with both technical and non technical teams
  - Sound ability to learn technologies and assist in various applications
  - Amazing skills to work on Windows and Linux
  - Proficient with .NET, Visual Studio, ASP, Cold Fusion & PhotoShop,HTML/DHTML and CSS
-

Professional Experience:

Web Development Project Manager
DKS Systems, LLC, Evansville, IN October 2008 – Present

- Provided support to various sales operation team and ensured efficiency in information technology network.
- Coordinated with marketing and engineering teams and planned proper functioning of all solutions.
- Planned various implementations of budgets and monitored process appropriately.
- Developed training programs, provided support to its implementation process and updated it as required.
- Facilitated procurement management processes and managed internal capital authorization.
- Documented project and managed all vendor resources and ensured its adequacy.
- Participated in various project meetings and scheduled meetings as required.
- Monitored all project issues and escalated issues if required.

Web Development Project Lead
Adecco E&T, Evansville, IN
August 2003 – September 2008

- Developed web design and conducted regular reviews for web development process.
- Maintained multiple web development projects and managed various project management tools.
- Assisted web development members and ensured high quality in production.
- Scheduled project calendar and maintained regular records of project status and submitted it to management.
- Analyzed process and recommended necessary improvements to process.
- Coordinated with internal and external clients and developed various solutions to problems.

Web Development Project Coordinator
TechProse, Evansville, IN
May 1998 – July 2003

- Managed SQL Server databases and performed necessary installation of process.
  - Analyzed various development project and recommended necessary changes.
  - Documented specifications and assisted in making development projects.
  - Developed test use cases, performed necessary tests and recorded all procedures.
  - Provided support to developers and performed necessary functions.
  - Designed SQL queries and generated necessary reports.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Software Engineering
Longwood University, Farmville, VA

Build your Resume Now