
Welding Apprentice Resume

Job Objective

Hard-working, self-motivated Welding Apprentice seeking a full-time position with reputable organization. I am willing to learn this industry from the bottom in order to become a full time employee at your company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Sound knowledge of the operation, repair, and preventive maintenance of light and heavy gasoline- and diesel-powered construction equipment and automotive apparatus
 - Huge knowledge of all the welding works and procedures
-

Professional Experience:

Welding Apprentice

Argus Technical Services, Worcester, MA

August 2005 – Present

- Welded parts, tools, machines and equipment.
- Identified metal type and requirements for finished product strength and welded accordingly.
- Developed the patterns for projects adhering to layouts, blueprints and work orders.
- Cleaned, checked for defects and shape component parts.
- Welded the parts together.

Welding Apprentice

Epsilon Systems Solutions, Inc., Worcester, MA

May 2000 – July 2005

- Participated and learned the maintenance and reliability services.
 - Ensured equipment system availability and integrity to meet defined production targets, contributing to the success of the organization in regard to the four business plan goals.
 - Contributed in the leadership to Health, Safety and Environment.
 - Documented procedures and ensured practices, standards, rules are followed.
 - Adhered to human resources policies.
 - Provided input and feedback on issues affecting the dept and plans for change and growth.
 - Ensured that the performance management process is utilized, and performance meets the needs of the company and team.
-

Education:

High School Diploma

Merrillville High School, Merrillville, IN

Build your Resume Now