
Wilderness Therapist Resume

Job Objective

A capable Wilderness Therapist with extensive training and experience seeking a position within your organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Extensive experience in therapeutic services
 - Sound knowledge of working with school children
 - Deep knowledge of funding available for special needs children
 - Skilled in therapy practices
 - Amazing ability to perform wilderness related activities
 - Immense ability to plan and coordinate treatment services on daily basis
 - Outstanding ability to monitor medication storages
-

Professional Experience:

Wilderness Therapist
Lander Regional Hospital, Farmers Branch, TX
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Maintained the treatment area clean and safe.
- Assisted students in achieving therapeutic goals.
- Maintained records of student's daily progress.
- Encouraged students to participate in therapeutic activities.
- Administered medications as per Physician's order.
- Planned and conducted special events.
- Presented case records in weekly meetings.
- Reported any unsafe situations to management promptly.

Wilderness Therapist
Aureus Medical Group, Farmers Branch, TX
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Attended to medical needs of patients.
 - Administered tetanus immunization for patients.
 - Conducted TB skin test and urine test as per Physician's order.
 - Provided hygiene, nutrition and alcohol abuse education to patients.
 - Adhered to infection control policies.
 - Maintained inventory control of medical supplies.
 - Trained new Therapists in wilderness safety issues.
 - Tracked medication errors and implemented error reduction strategies.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Wilderness Therapy
St. Lawrence University, Canton, NY
Bachelor's Degree in Occupational Therapy
Marlboro College, Marlboro, VT

Build your Resume Now