
Zoo Nutritionist Resume

Job Objective

Seeking Zoo Nutritionist position and make a useful contribution to the organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Highly experienced in formulation, implementation and monitoring of diets of zoo inhabitants
 - Thorough knowledge of nutritional and physiological requirements and issues of captive wildlife
 - Outstanding knowledge of all applicable government-approved regulations and standards
 - Proficiency in using word processor, spreadsheets, Internet, nutritional analysis software and nutrition databases
 - Ability to order, procure, assess and manage food products and dietary items, properly
 - Ability to maintain proper nutrition and health of zoo animals, by making effective diet modifications
-

Professional Experience:

Zoo Nutritionist
San Diego ZOO Global, Northampton, PA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Directed and managed animal nutrition program for all captive wildlife present in the zoo.
 - Worked with animal care staff, veterinary team and horticultural department, for improvement of zoo environment.
 - Created, assessed, modified, approved and implemented species-specific diets for zoo's animal collection.
 - Achieved all assigned animal nutrition, health, behavioral and husbandry objectives.
 - Executed all assigned tasks in compliance with AZA and USDA standards.
 - Assisted with development, execution and management of food quality control programs.
-

Zoo Nutritionist
Merritt Hawkins, Northampton, PA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Created and implemented effective and scientific nutritional research program involving captive wildlife.
 - Developed and managed annual budget for diets, nutritional analysis, and nutritional research of zoo animals.
 - Attended multi-institutional programs, national organization meetings, international programs and animal welfare committee meetings.
 - Participated in various animal-conservation programs and species-survival programs.
 - Collected and maintained latest information related to dietary ingredient regulations, animal welfare issues and safety standards.
 - Worked with zoo support staff and animal care team, in a cooperative and helpful manner.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Animal Nutrition
Honolulu University, Honolulu, HI

Build your Resume Now