

Ron Herring

Professional Summary

Successful history developing Independent Contractor intelligence to improve business operational planning and implementation. Knowledgeable about business best practices, regulatory standards and optimal control systems.

Work History

January 2014 — January 2019

Alpha & Omega

Independent Contractor

Smyrna, GA

- Alpha & Omega.
- Raising job enquiries in different companies using designs and project estimates based on tender specifications.
- Catering to client needs by providing quality services.
- Forming laborer group well-suited for the project in hand.
- Creating budget for current project, on the

June 2011 — January 2014

MVM Associates, Inc.

Security Contractor

Smyrna, GA

- Ensuring timely completion of the project by following the building procedures carefully.
- Guaranteeing that quality standards and budget goals are met during the construction process.
- Facilitating the safe and consistent establishment of pipelines and other facilities like turbine station and regulator wing.

Skills

- Substantial experience in teaching, background checking for security purposes
- Profound knowledge of the digital media design
- Sound knowledge of computer applications
- Familiarity with legal aspects related to the subject
- Amazing ability to teach and assist students and type at high speeds
- Exceptional ability to communicate and market products over telephone

Education

Corning Community College

Corning, NY

2014

Associate Degree — Residential Planning

Graduated summa cum laude

Henley-Putnam University

San Jose, CA

Expected in 06/2021

Bachelor of Science — Resort Management

Dean's List 2019

Graduated with 3.8 GPA